Uma aconchegante
celebração do amor incondicional
entre pais e filhos – um amor
maior do que o Universo.
